Shardul
Agrawala

Head of Environment and Economy Integration Division,
Environment Directorate, OECD

Shardul Agrawala is Head of the Environment and Economy Integration Division at the OECD Environment Directorate. He took up duties in July 2013. In this capacity, Dr. Agrawala leads the Directorate's work on economic-environmental modelling, empirical analysis of environmental policies, trade and environment, and on resource productivity and waste.

At the OECD since 2002, Dr. Agrawala has previously served as Senior Advisor to the OECD Secretary General, Co-ordinator of the OECD-wide initiative on New Approaches to Economic Challenges, Acting Head of the Climate Change Biodiversity and Development Division, and Senior Economist Climate Change. Dr. Agrawala has published extensively on climate change. He has led teams of international experts for chapters of the Fourth and Fifth Assessment Reports of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC). He received his PhD from Princeton University and has previously held research positions at Princeton University, Harvard University, Columbia University and at the International Institute of Applied Systems Analysis (IIASA).
