Roger
Dungan

Deputy Permanent Representative to the OECD,
New Zealand

Roger Dungan is New Zealand's Deputy Permanent Representative to the OECD, and his work for the New Zealand Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade has had a strong trade and economic focus. Before coming to Paris in 2016 he was New Zealand's lead negotiator on climate finance and climate adaptation at COP21, and was a member of the UNFCCC Standing Committee on Finance. Before joining the foreign service, Roger was an award-winning environmental scientist, focusing on the carbon dynamics of New Zealand's indigenous forest ecosystems.
