

Myriam Linster

---

Principal Administrator, Environmental Performance & Information, Environment Directorate, OECD

Myriam Linster has more than 30 years of experience in the field of environmental reporting and assessments and in international environmental policies.

She leads the OECD programme on environmental information and indicators, including the monitoring of resource productivity and progress towards green growth. She is involved in the OECD's country environmental performance reviews and has been contributing to international work on sustainable development and resource efficiency indicators. She is a member of the UN Committee of Experts on Environmental-Economic Accounting.