

Sandra HANNIG is a Policy Analyst at the OECD Centre for Entrepreneurship, SMEs, Regions and Cities. She works on innovation and entrepreneurship policies contributing to economic development and social inclusion. She has contributed to and co-ordinated a number of OECD publications on innovation and entrepreneurship ecosystems in OECD and non-OECD countries, including on cluster policies and benchmarking of SME policies. Before joining the OECD Sandra Hannig carried out policy analysis projects for the German government and she worked as a policy officer at City of Vienna in Austria in regional competitiveness programmes with an emphasis on local innovation and entrepreneurship. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Economics from Maastricht University and a Master's Degree in International Economics from the Berlin School of Economics and Law.