

Presentation of the draft Gender Programme of Work

Mr. Carlos Conde, Coordinator, OECD-MENA Governance Programme

Relevance

- Governments in Arab and OECD countries increasingly develop and introduce strategies, policies, and initiatives which pay attention to equality and equal opportunity objectives in the public sector
- This is an opportunity for policy dialogue and exchange of good practices

Approach and Timeline

- Streamline the gender activities in the programme's existing thematic Working Groups in order to build on synergies and avoid overlap.
 - Working Group on Civil Service and Integrity
 - Working Group on E Government and Administrative Simplification
 - Working Group on the Governance of Public Finances
 - Working Group on Regulatory Reform

Strategic framework and tools

- Regional Policy Dialogue and Capacity Building
- Joint learning: Activities and Studies
- Series of periodical Progress Reports

STRATEGY

- Network of MENA and OECD peers: action oriented dialogue
- Co-operation with Arab Regional Networks: ARADO and CAWTAR
- Incremental process: from dialogue to policy action
- Mobilising resources

See you in Marrakech!!

