

Ms. Annemarie Muntz

President, World Employment Confederation and Managing Director, Global Public Affairs, Randstad

Annemarie Muntz is Managing Director Global Public Affairs at Randstad. Since 2014, next to her day job, she is President of the World Employment Confederation (WEC), the voice of the global employment industry, representing 50 national associations and seven large, international workforce solutions companies in the HR services industry.

She chaired WEC-Europe, its European counterpart from 2005 to 2017. She is a senior public affairs and labour market expert and a professional speaker interacting with international institutions as ILO, OECD, B20, UN and EU. She co-chaired the 2018 B20 Employment & Education Taskforce and coordinates the IBA Global Employment Institute's Advisory Board.

Her interests and specialties lie in the field of labour market policies, regulation, sustainability, industrial relations and the future of work. Annemarie obtained a Masters of Law in Social and Economic Law at the University of Utrecht, The Netherlands.