Addendum to Question 1: Following a successful achievement of "Development Initiative for Trade"(2006-2008), Japan announced the "Development Initiative for Trade 2009" in July 2009 at Global Review, Geneva. Under this new initiative, Japan pledges further to provide USD 12 billion of financial assistance for trade-related projects including technical assistance of 40 thousand persons in total for 3 years from 2009 to 2011. The 2009 initiative also consists of improving Aid for Trade implementation and meeting the commitments made at the G20 London Summit in April 2009 in the area of trade finance. The higher target can be seen as Japan's stronger commitments and positive stand to Aid for Trade.
