

Anne-France Didier

Special Adviser for Regional and Local Governance and Co-ordinator for SDG14,
Ministry for the Ecological and Inclusive Transition, France

Currently a Special Adviser for regional and local Governance and Co-ordinator for SDG14 at the French Ministry for the Ecological and Inclusive Transition, Anne-France Didier was in charge of the “Plan Bleu” in 2006, one of the regional activity centers and part of the UN EP/MAP system for the Barcelona Convention. From March 2013 to January 2016, she was the director of the DREAL (regional direction of the Ministry in charge of Environment, Energy and Sustainable Development) in Provence Alpes Côtes d’Azur and, from February 1998 to September 2004, she was the Director of the DIREN (regional Direction of the French Ministry of Environment) successively in the West indian Ocean (Reunion Island) and South France (Provence Alpes Côtes d’Azur). She also managed the transition to a sustainable development, teaching a programme and the e-learning of the french technical high school ENTE in Aix en Provence during 8 years.