

2019
#GGSD
Forum

Scott
Vaughan

Distinguished Fellow,
Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD)

Scott Vaughan is the International Chief Advisor to the China Council for International Cooperation on Environment and Development (CCICED), and an IISD Senior Fellow. Until early 2019, he was the President and CEO of IISD. Previously, he was Canada's federal Commissioner of Environment and Sustainable Development, Director of the Department of Sustainable Development, Organization of American States (OAS), Visiting Scholar at the Carnegie Endowment of International Peace, Head of Economics and Trade, NAFTA Environment Commission, and Counselor, World Trade Organization (WTO).

At UN Environment, he initiated the UNEP Financial Initiative (UNEP FI), headed the UNEP Environment and Trade work, and worked in the office of the UNEP Executive Director. Scott has also worked in the economic and corporate affairs of the head office, RBC Financial Group, and in the office of the Canadian federal Minister of the Environment. He is an associate editor of the Chinese Journal of Urban and Environment Studies, an associate with the Loyola Sustainability Research Centre, on the advisory committee of the Global Development Center, Boston University, was a founding member of the Circular Economy Leaders Coalition (Canada), and participated in the World Circular Economy Forums in 2017 and 2018.