

Chairman,
International Sustainability & Carbon Certification (ISCC System)

Gernot Klepper is a Senior Researcher at the Kiel Institute for the World Economy (IfW). Since 2014, he coordinates the Dialogue on the Economics of Climate Change on behalf of the German Federal Ministry for Education and Research. He has been for many years Head of the Research Center “The Environment and Natural Resources” at the IfW and Speaker of the Kiel Earth Institute. An economist by training, Gernot Klepper received a Ph.D. in Agricultural Economics. His research interests center on climate mitigation with a focus on modeling and analyzing the impact of climate policy instruments. Especially, the role of natural resources such as land and water in the climate system and their contribution to climate change as well as mitigation are among his research topics. He is Chairman of the International Sustainability and Carbon Certification Association (ISCC e.V.).
